

SEARCHING FOR THE CASH

Attorney DeLamatre Calls the Officers of Taylor's Bank Into Court.

EXECUTIONS ALL RETURNED UNSATISFIED

Evidence Fails to Disclose Where Creditors Are to Find Any Assets to Liquidate Claims Against the Defunct Institution.

The inquiry to ascertain what has become of the assets of the Globe Loan and Trust company began before Judge Baker yesterday upon an order of the court recently made, requiring the officers of the company to appear with their books and the keys of the Linwood Park Land company. Judge Baker's order has been made on the strength of an affidavit by Clayton W. DeLamatre, attorney at law, of New York, stating that a judgment in favor of Briggs in December, 1896, for a little over $500 had not availed the plaintiff anything, an execution having been levied, but returned by the sheriff unsatisfied because no property of the defendant could be found. Mr. DeLamatre proposes to find out what disposition has been made of the property of the Globe Loan and Trust company to see if there is anything left upon which he can levy in the interest of his clients.

W. Beech Taylor, secretary and treasurer, and Henry O. Devries, president of the company, appeared and were examined. Cadet Taylor, his vice president, was not in the court. He is supposed to be in Washington. The particular books and papers needed by Mr. DeLamatre had not been brought into court, so a continuance until next Saturday was necessitated. The rent collection book and two certain deeds are especially needed. Neither Mr. Taylor nor Mr. Devries seemed to have much personal knowledge of the transactions of their company, apart from the records and books. Their testimony generally amounted to, "I don't know." Mr. DeLamatre did bring out, however, that the Globe Loan and Trust company has $2,500 worth of stock in the National Bank of Commerce and a $5,000 equity in Thornton place, as an interest in the Thornton syndicate. This is tied up, though, as a security for a loan made to the National Bank of Commerce. Mr. Taylor stated this much.

Answers Not Satisfactory.

It also came out that the two deeds so much desired in evidence are two deeds of trust made by the Globe Loan and Trust company to the Linwood Park Land company and the Cottage Home Building company, respectively, in January and February, 1897, after the Briggs judgment, and conveying property of the Globe Loan and Trust company "to protect" certain creditors, according to the testimony of Mr. Devries. These deeds were in the shape of a mortgage, Mr. Devries admitted that he, as collector for the concern, had been collecting some rents from several properties, but he said these rents had been generally placed in the treasury of the Globe Loan and Trust company to be applied to the disbursements for the particular properties under lease. Instances of this kind were admitted to be the property at 108 and 110 North Thirtieth street, also a house at Forty-fifth and Jackson paying $5 or $6 a month rent until about a year ago and two houses at Twenty-seventh and Blondo streets. Most of the properties in this condition, it was stated by Mr. Devries, are in the hands of receivers in mortgage foreclosure suits. The rents from the North Thirtieth street goes to A. M. Ferris of Boston, the holder of a first mortgage lien, but until a year ago it went into the Globe Loan and Trust company's treasury, Mr. Devries confessed.

Not a Dollar in the Treasury.

Among Mr. Taylor's statements was one to the effect that the Globe Loan and Trust company does not now possess any property which has not been hypothecated in some way, subject to the claims of creditors; that it has not a dollar in its treasury and the officers have not received any money for a year and a half. Both Taylor and Devries admitted their connection with other companies, such as the Linwood Park Land company and the Cottage Home Building company. Mr. Devries is the secretary and treasurer of the Linwood Park Land company and Mr. Taylor said he had some office in the Cottage Home Building company, but just what it is he could not remember, for the reason that lately this concern had not done much business. He is also the secretary and treasurer of the Globe Building company. Of the Henryton Land company he said he knows nothing and as to the Globe Savings bank it has gone into liquidation and is practically dead.

For a time while Judge Baker was at a loss to see what all these other corporations had to do with the case, but on reading Mr. DeLamatre's affidavit, he declared it broad enough. Still he said the court would be powerless to make any order without these other corporations having first filed their day in court. The nature of the proceeding was simply of an inquiry under section 333 in aid of execution, said Mr. DeLamatre, and did not involve a garnishment proceeding. Judge Baker permitted the inquiry to go on with this understanding.

DISPOSING OF THE PRISONERS.

Sentences Passed Upon Inmates of the County Jail.

Judge Baker had a number of prisoners arraigned during the forenoon, and some of those who had been convicted were sentenced. Lawrence Pemberton, a negro, got two and a half years for shooting Ed Jensen, a white man, in a general fight at a Douglas street restaurant last summer. The sentencing of Mike Corcoran for the forgery of a time check was deferred. Newton Jones, colored, was sent to the county jail ninety days for assaulting Homer L. Case.

Daniel Gobin, a man 55 years of age, pleaded guilty to throwing a brick through a plate glass window at South Omaha last month. He said he did it because he was angry, even not being paid some money due him for work as a brick tender. As he had been in jail fifty-two days altogether, the court took this into consideration and gave him a light sentence of thirty days, adding to it a fine of $100.

The arraignments were, all the accused pleading not guilty: Luke Long, burglary of the butcher shop of Daniel E. Florio, January 9, and taking meat; Leroy Harry Long, burglary of the dwelling of Beale Smith, December 13, and stealing a jacket worth $16; John Mullen, two charges of daylight breaking, one concerning the breaking into Joseph Phelan's house January 9, and the other concerning the breaking into the house of John Mullen, January 23, and taking two satchels of W. H. Thomas; Charles Smith, alias "Sloppy" Smith, burglary of the dwelling of Julius Schenberger, January 18; Edwin M. Stover, alias Ed Harris Stover, forging the name of Joseph Dunning, per J. M. Dunning, to a United States National bank check for $18.50, and the name of C. Dyball to a Nebraska National bank check for $12, payable to George W. Harris, on January 28; Harry Longberg, forging the name of Amos Louder to three Bank of Craig checks for $27.68, $27.88 and $37.68 respectively, January 2.

CITY ASKS FOR A NEW TRIAL

Council Wants Another Round in the Moise License Case.

NOT SATISFIED WITH COURT'S DECISION

Ninety-Four Reasons Given Why the Findings of Judge Scott Should Not Stand and Be Taken as Final.

City Attorney Connell has filed his motion for a new trial in the mandamus case of Moise & Co. against the Fire and Police Commission. No time was set for a hearing, and Judge Scott goes to Sargy county Monday to hold court there. Meanwhile the matter will remain pending and a week or two may pass before it is reached. As many as ninety-four reasons are given for a new trial. Briefly the main ones from a legal point of view, are as follows: Irregularity of proceedings preventing a fair trial to the defendant; abuse of discretion on the part of the judge; lack of evidence to sustain the decision and findings of February 23; that the peremptory writ issued by Judge Scott January 30 was without authority and in violation of the statutes; the judge had no jurisdiction to issue such writs; the case was a speedy trial; that no judge of the district court has jurisdiction to compel the members of the Fire and Police Commission to grant a liquor license against their honest convictions; that the court has no authority to attempt to control the judicial discretion of the board; that the judgment and order of Judge Scott are in violation of section 645 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and that the final judgment did not follow the original writ.

Where the Court Erred.

Then all the facts of Judge Scott's sustaining objections of the counsel for Moise & Co. to the grant of a new trial, to various witnesses are related. Among these were the court's refusal to allow Cashier Carrier of the Omaha National bank to testify as to the alleged forgery of the names of M. B. Sanders, Kate Fisher and L. J. Yampilek to the case before the court. The signing of these three names by L. J. Henderschott, who had been employed by Moise & Co. to obtain signatures to their petition; the court's sustaining of Wright's objection to the testimony of the witness intended statement that he did not sign the name purporting to be his among the petitioners' signatures, and that he was not a resident freeholder of the Third ward; also the rulings of the court barring out all the evidence of Harwood Douglas and others as to the character of Jack Norton and the kind of saloon run by Norton under the Moise license of 1898, and refusing to admit in evidence the written complaints communicated to Chief of Police White and his formal protest and remonstrance.

License Not Want.

The question of granting a license to Walter Moise will probably remain in statu quo until the supreme court decides upon the case. The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners will not molest Moise and will permit him to remain in business, but at the same time will not issue a license to him.

Deposits Need Assistance.

The county commissioners have sent the wife and child of Andrew Dupont to Kansas City. She came here yesterday morning at the trial of her husband for the killing of William Walker at the South Omaha prize fight of October 17. The trial did not occur until the month was more than half passed and she was all the time in destitute circumstances. Her husband in jail could not render her any assistance. Since the acquittal of Dupont and his family have been stopping at the Child Saving institute. His confinement in jail had impaired his health somewhat and he was not able to go to work. A position at South Omaha packing house is awaiting him as he gets strong enough. Under the circumstances the county undertook to see that Mrs. Dupont and their baby girl were enabled to go back to Kansas City.

Petters that Are Gallings.

A petition for a divorce was filed by Christina Herbst yesterday, alleging that her husband, Henry Herbst, came home drunk seven months after they were married. In due time the petition was granted and a decree of divorce was entered. The wife is a South Omaha people and lives at 2711 R street. She also states that he has frequently abused her. Judge Fawcett granted a restraining order to prevent Herbst from coming near her or her household effects, she representing to the court that she was afraid he would destroy her belongings.

NELSON IN POLICE COURT

Charged with Having Violated the Law by Selling Liquor on Sunday.

Judge Gordon listened to another case Saturday afternoon in which Henry Nelson is charged with having kept his place, 2029 North Twentieth street, open on Sunday. Two officers testified that they entered the place on Sunday afternoon and purchased a couple of glasses of beer for themselves. They also saw him sell two bottles of beer. The case went over until Monday afternoon, at which time all similar cases will be urged, the defense holding that the state has no right to interfere with a citizen's property without compensation and that it is the only way to secure conclusive evidence and that it is often necessary to adopt what is considered a doubtful way of proving evidence. The decision of these cases is looked forward to by saloon men with undoubted interest.

Working the Charity Game.

John Hoyt, Joe Davis and George Black were arrested Saturday afternoon by Officer Drummy. They are slated as suspicious characters, but the officer arrested them for something else. They had been down to South Omaha and was coming back when he observed the three get on the same street car with him. Pretty soon Hoyt got up and passed from passenger to passenger with a paper, explaining that he was deaf and dumb and needed assistance. The other fellows were the authors of this method of raising cash, as Hoyt was really afflicted as represented. The officer paid no attention to them until they reached Fourteenth and Douglas streets, where he took them to the station. Davis and Black are old offenders in this city.

Passed Along from Des Moines. Olivia Gilmore came in from Des Moines, Ia., Saturday afternoon and applied to Police Matron Ryan for assistance to get to Georgetown, Colo. She is deaf and almost blind, so that it is dangerous for a stranger to be on the street alone. She informed the matron that the commissioners in Des Moines had told her how charitable the people of Omaha are so that she felt she would have no trouble in securing funds to pay her way to her destination. She has been a worker with the Pentecostal people and thinks they will help her also. She will be kept at the police station until Monday, when the matron will endeavor to secure her transportation to Georgetown.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Colonel Edward Roberts, the government inspector of buildings under the Treasury department, returned to Washington yesterday after spending three days here. He was here to inspect the work and the progress of the same under the direction of the superintendent of construction, Major Frank Cramer. His report on the building was most flattering under the circumstances, inasmuch as work on the building was suspended for four weeks in advance by the present superintendent of construction and the work was not resumed until after the progress made and reported accordingly to department headquarters. All material and work have been contemplated and arranged for four weeks in advance by the present superintendent of construction and the work was not resumed until after the progress made and reported accordingly to department headquarters. Contract for the electric wiring was scheduled to be let on February 21 and the same are now under way. The fireproofing which encases all iron and steel work as well as forms the actual floor foundations is now in place. One of the interesting features of this work is the requirement that the dead load on floors, this being specified at 800 pounds per square foot, which was tested by an ingenious method by Major Cramer under witness of the inspector to 1,500 pounds at contract price. The contract for the aluminum bronze lock boxes has been let to the Yale and Towne Manufacturing company of Stamford, Conn., and are ordered delivered April 1. While the interior work has been pushed during the winter months and applied to the building below the second story is nearly completed and the interior finish, which is being worked out in Chicago, is now ready for shipment.

An attempt was made last week to complete the balustrade around the roof of the building, but on account of the low temperature the superintendent stopped the work until warmer weather.

FRIENDS GATHER AT THE BIER.

Funeral of the Late Mrs. Mayfield Largely Attended.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Nellie Foster Mayfield were held at the Twenty-first street funeral home yesterday afternoon. The number of 200 or more were present and listened attentively to the services which were most impressive. Rev. Robert L. Wheeler, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. Howard Cramblet, pastor of the Christian church, conducted the services. Rev. Cramblet opened the services with a scripture reading and this was followed by a song, "Just for Today," by Miss Jean Boyd Mullen. Rev. Wheeler, who has always been a near friend of the family, told of the Christian spirit in which she passed away. The funeral was held at the residence of the family, 1215 North Twenty-first street, at 2 o'clock.
